This is Pretty Good.

Mr. John C. Goodwin, a carpenter of Danville, Ill., writes: "About two weeks ago a heavy saw log fell upon my foot very badly crushing it, so that I was unable to walk at all. I sent for a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and kept my foot well saturated with it. It is now two weeks since this happened, and my foot is nearly well and I am at work. Had I not used Snow Liniment I should have been laid up at least two months. For healing Wounds, Sprains, Sores and Bruises it has no equal. No inflammation can exist where Snow Liniment is used. 'You can use this letter.'"

Beware of all white Liniments substituted for Snow Liniment. There is no other Liniment like Ballard's Snow Liniment. Sold by H. C. Risher & Co.

EXAMINING TRIAL

Of O. W. Buck Continued Today And Will TAKE A PART OF NEXT WEEK.

The Testimony is Voluminous and Its Taking Tedious—All the Witnesses Yet Examined Were for the State—Defendant has Some Important Testimony When the Time Comes.

When Justice Gallagher's court convened at 2 o'clock the testimony of Phil S. Hogan which was not concluded in the forenoon was resumed and was as follows:

The pistol I took from Fowzer was a 45 caliber; one chamber was empty (no shell in it) and two contained empty shells. I have the pistol now in my possession. I do not know whose pistol it was. He (Fowzer) had but one pistol. I only saw him shoot once. I don't know how many shots were fired up stairs.

Dr. H. L. Taylor, next sworn for the state, testified:

I live in Waco and have known defendant two years; I was at Pacific hotel on night of difficulty; I was standing on the sidewalk in front of the Pacific hotel when I heard two shots fired and ran in the hotel lobby and saw Mr. Buck standing at the foot of the stairs with a pistol in his hand; I went to him and asked him to go away and quit that; he shoved me and said let me alone; he did this several times when he finally shoved me pretty hard and shoved me down; I got up and started at him but was caught by some parties, and I did not see any more of it until the shooting was over; I was taken out on the sidewalk and when we got out there the shooting commenced up stairs again and I rushed up stairs; when I got there I saw a great deal of confusion; I saw Mr. Smith go into a room like he was hurt and I went in to him; I saw Mr. Buck after I had been in the up stairs hall about a minute; when I went into the rotunda, at first he was standing at the foot of the stairs pistol in hand, looking up stairs; there were four or five shots after I was taken out on the sidewalk and probably more. I don't think there were but two shots fired before I went into the hotel the first time.

The cross examination elicited the following:

Mr. Weil, Alley Dunnica, and I don't know who else, pulled me out of the office. I saw no one in the office but Mr. Buck when I went in. There were several came running out the door as we went in, but I don't know who they were. I heard nothing that I can remember said in the office at that time, but what Mr. Buck said to me. I heard women screaming up stairs. I did not see Phil Hogan or Tom Nason when they came into the office. The two shots I heard before entering hotel proved to be up stairs from the sound. I heard no one tell Mr. Buck while down stairs to "look out he is going to shoot you" from above nor anything like that. When I went up stairs I remember seeing Dr. Hengst, Chas. Hobson, Pat Massey, Andy Smith, defendant, Mrs. and Miss Buck. I saw several I did not know.

F. H. Kingsbury was the next witness called and testified as follows:

I was at the Pacific hotel on the night of the difficulty. When the first shot was fired I was standing in front of Anson's barber shop talking to Eugene Wiel. I heard one shot and I ran into the hotel. I heard women screaming up stairs. When I got into the hotel. I first saw defendant standing at foot of stairs on the right hand side running down with a pistol in his hand. He had the pistol pointed up the stairs and was looking up stairs. Dr. Taylor passed me and went up and asked Buck what was the matter. Buck told him a time or two to get away, motioning him away and to the best of my recollection, said there is some one up stairs trying to run me out of my house. He then pushed Dr. Taylor and Taylor fell down. Several of us took Taylor out on the sidewalk, and when I came back Buck was starting up the steps. Tom Nason was going up and I think Mr. Flint was right behind Mr. Buck. I started up the steps and about that time the firing commenced up stairs and I went down. I think there were six shots fired, there might have been more or there might have been less. The next I saw, Buck came down the steps and said something to Esser about more cartridges, or that his pistol was empty. The night clerk was then standing in the door of the dining room. Defendant and Esser went into the saloon. Esser went behind the bar and worked in the drawer. Buck got a small pistol from the lunch counter and walked through to the door and office and started up the steps again. When he got nearly up the steps I saw Fowzer, Hogan, and, I think, Tom Nason, just coming around the corner at the top of the stairs. I heard Hogan say to Buck: "I have this man under arrest, I am an officer and I have his revolver." Buck was then between the landing and the steps, going up, and had a pistol in his hand. He was holding it so it pointed up stairs toward the men coming down. Mr. Buck then went out by them and said, I think, "Get out of my house," or something, when they got at the head of stairway coming down, Fowzer said handle me carefully, I am shot all to pieces. From the time I first saw defendant standing at the foot of stairs as I have above stated, until the time that he went up stairs was about five minutes. I went out with Dr. Taylor and went up the sidewalk one or two doors and then went back to the hotel just as Buck was starting up.

I am not sure that Buck staid at foot of stairs five minutes. There was a good deal of confusion. I think it was about five minutes from what happened during the time. During the whole confusion women were screaming up stairs. The night clerk was motioning his hand and saying, go up there. This was while Buck was at foot of stairs, and after Buck was up stairs Policeman Briggs was there and asked him why he did not go up there. He said something to me which I can't here remember, and went on towards the front door.

Tom Nason was next sworn for state, and testified: I have lived in Waco since '82. Have known Buck ever since he has been here. I was at the Pacific hotel the night of the 25th January, 1892, when the difficulty occurred. I was in Ed Hatton's saloon, and some one came and said there was shooting at the hotel, and some of us went down to the hotel. When I got there Buck was walking around the rotunda looking up stairs and up the stairway. He had a pistol in his hand. Buck started up stairs and I started behind him. He got nearly to the top and kind of fell and I helped him up on his feet. I said, what is the matter? and he said I am shot in the leg. He turned to the right at the head of the stair. I stopped and let him get in ahead of me. About the time I got in the hallway the shooting commenced. Buck was about eight or ten feet away from me. There was some shooting done but I don't know who did it. I got out of the way in a little offset in the hall. I did not see the first shot. I heard some women screaming up stairs. I did not hear Buck say anything nor did I hear anybody say anything to him. After the shooting was over Hogan walked over to Fowzer and I followed him. Hogan said: "I am an officer and I summon you to help me arrest this man." I took Fowzer by the left arm, which was shot, and Hogan and I took him down stairs. I did not see anybody on the stairs; I did not see anything of Buck on the stairway. I walked down the stairs and put Fowzer in a hack in front of the hotel. As soon as I caught hold of Fowzer I discovered his arm was broken. He said: "Don't pull me around; my arm is broken." I don't know that anybody else started up the steps with me and Buck. Buck was ahead of me and I stopped on the stairs to let him get in ahead of me. I stopped on the top step to let Buck get further ahead of me. I went up to see what was going on and found out. I did not wish to know after I got up.

I first saw Phil Hogan that night when he went through the hall to Fowzer. I did not see Hogan when I went up the steps. Hogan was met at the foot of the steps talking with Mr. Buck, and when I went up the steps I did not see him there. I did not see Hogan when the firing was going on. I was standing directly opposite the head of the steps while the firing was going on. I was standing in a recess with my face to the wall, looking toward Fourth street; the firing began about ten seconds after Buck landed at the head of the steps; I was just crossing the hall when the firing began; I do not know who fired the first shot; I do not know how many shots were fired; I do not remember offering to go up stairs with Buck; it was light in the hall; I can't say where Buck was standing when the shot was fired; I suppose he was up the other way in the hallway.

Examined by court: It was between one and five minutes that Buck was at the foot of the stairs after I came in the hall; the screaming continued and I went up the stairs and for a while afterwards, I did not see Fowzer when I first went up the steps; I did not look for him; Buck was not excited; he looked to me to be very cool about it.

The court then adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

Do You Know It?

A common cough is the most dangerous thing in the world; a slight hacking cough is also very dangerous, as it always leads to Bronchitis and Consumption. Don't neglect them. A National Event.

The holding of the World's Fair in a city scarcely fifty years old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will really benefit this nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nerve by Dr. Franklin Miles is doubtful. This is just what the American people need to cure their excessive nervousness, dyspepsia, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neuralgia, nervous debility, dullness, confusion of mind, etc. It acts like a charm. Trial bottles and fine book on "Nervous and Heart Diseases," with unequalled testimonials, free at H. C. Risher. It is warranted to contain no opium, morphine or dangerous drugs.

BLOOD POISON.

A destructive agent, that, like fire, consumes and annihilates life.

Is there a single particle of blood poison in your veins? Beware! Like the devouring flame, it increases in force and leaves only destruction in its track. Poison in the blood is due sometimes to contagion. Sometimes it is inherited. It ruins health, no matter from which source it springs. It feeds in a horrible manner on the flesh, and devastates every organ of the body. Pitting in the extreme would be the condition of that man awaiting death from the effects of scrofula, syphilis, deep-seated ulcers, rotting of the bones, sloughing of the flesh, aching joints, etc., were there no salvation for him. But there is; for, although these conditions continue to grow worse if neglected, he nevertheless can be saved to a life of usefulness, and every trace of blood poison can be eliminated from his system, and he be made safe from further suffering, and his posterity insured against the possibility of a fearful heritage, easily and quickly, if he will only use that infallible antidote for blood poison, Dr. John Bull's Sarsaparilla. It contains just such ingredients as nature has provided for cleansing the blood of every impurity, for restoring strength to the digestive processes, for assisting in the correct assimilation of nutrition and building up new tissue. Try it when other remedies have failed. It has never and never will disappoint any one. J. B. Morse, Clinton, Ind., writes:

MADE PURE.

"I was for many years affected with contagious blood poison. Portions of my flesh seemed to be fairly putrid and mortifying. My hair fell out, and I was an object of repulsion to every one. My breath smelled horrible, and I had catarrh so fearfully bad that pieces of frontal bones rotted and came out my nostrils. I lost the sense of taste and smell. I became a veritable bag of bones, and weighed only eighty-nine pounds. I could hardly sleep from pain, and was so weak I could hardly walk. The doctors said I could not live many months. A druggist persuaded me to try Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla, and strange as it may seem, that remedy saved my life and brought me back to health. I now weigh 130 pounds, am free from pain and sores, and although I have deep scars where sores were, I consider myself in excellent health."

Don't wait for your child to have spasms. Remove the worms at once with Dr. John Bull's Worm Destroyer.

My wife had chills and fever for nearly a year. At last Smith's Tonic Syrup broke them up, and I now prescribe it in my practice.—Dr. A. W. Travis, Still Lake, Kas.
